One night, Chicken asked
Mom. - Where is my Daddy?
Mom just went on with lullaby. - Sleep tight, my baby!

In the morning, Chicken asked again. - Where is my Daddy? Mom just kept digging. - Here's your big worm, baby!

At noon, Chicken repeated.
- Where is my Daddy?
Turning blushed as being shy, Mom just clucked without reply.

In the afternoon, Chicken said. - Where is my Daddy?
Though it's hard to say, But no longer could Mom delay.

- Someone with comb on head, Like sun, it would be red. If you see someone like that, Say 'Hello', it's your Dad.

Going play in garden,
Seeing a cockscomb plant,
Chicken called happily, -
Here you are, my Daddy!
