

Tiwi's Trunk

Endri Kris Junprihatina
Hutami

When taking a bath in the river, Tiwi shows off to her friends. "Look what I can do with my trunk!"

But Tiwi's friends do not like it. For them, it is annoying.

They are leaving one by one.

Ah, playing with the monkeys may be more fun.

Woohoo!

Ouch! The tree cannot hold it.

Tiwi is too heavy for that game.

What about playing with the rabbits?

Oops! Ouch!

A rabbit says that Tiwi's trunk is too long. Tiwi better plays something else.

What if playing with the pangolin? It looks fun to curl like that. Can Tiwi do it?

“Ugh! Ugh! It turns out to be difficult!”

“Let’s leap upside down like this, Tiwi!” Mousedeer asks.

Wow, it looks fun!

Suddenly ... splash!

Oh, look! That house is on fire! All animals are running towards to offer help.

But the fire is burning the crown of the trees. Tiwi has to do something.

Screech! All animals cheer for Tiwi.

The fire is out now! Wow, great, Tiwi!

Now Tiwi knows how to have fun. She can use her long trunk for watering the plants in Mr. Bee's garden.

Her trunk can also become a bath fountain. Tiwi loves to create the fun using her trunk.
