

A Bracelet for Mother

Tomorrow is Mother's birthday. Saras wants to make her a special bracelet for a gift. Saras remembers she has three boxes of beads she can use.

Where are the bead boxes?
She cannot remember.

Is it in the toy box? Oh, here is one. Saras has to look for the other two boxes.

Is it in the wardrobe?
Oh I found another one!
Hmmm... Where is the last one?

Ah, there it is.

Why is it all the way at the bottom of this pile of stuff?

Oh no!

What should Saras do? She made a big mess looking for the beads.

Saras has to tidy everything up.

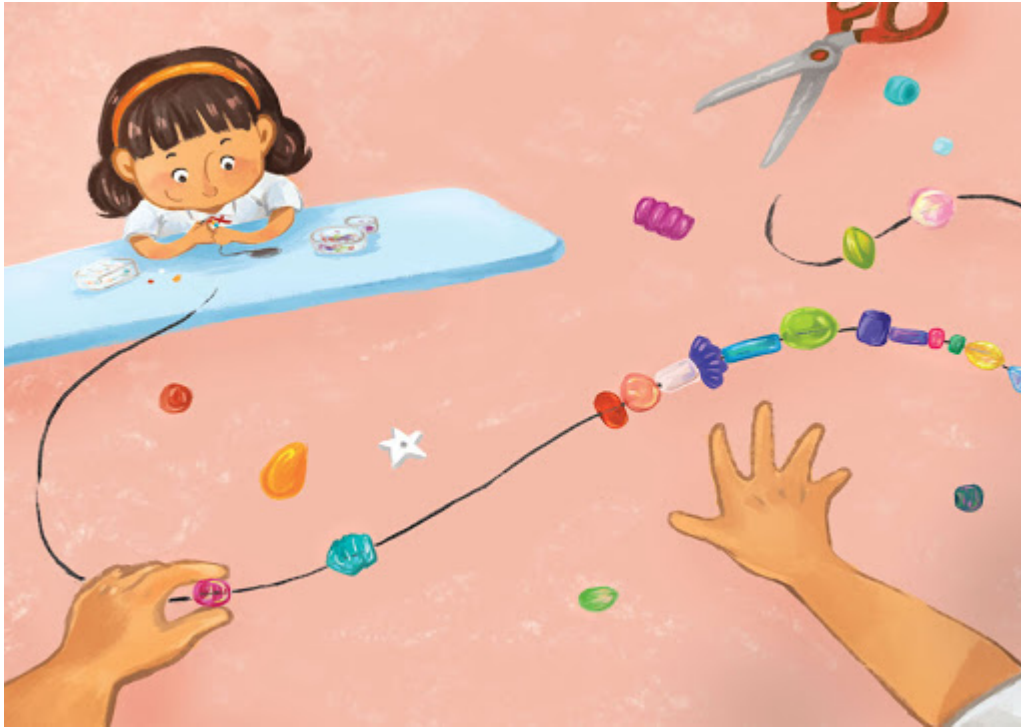

Saras folds the clothes,
returns the toys to the box,
and straightens up the things on the floor.

All done!

Saras can finally make a beautiful bracelet for her Mother.

I hope mother likes her gift.

Happy birthday, Mother!

Saras is so happy that her mother likes her gift!
