

TOMATO

Nhã Thuyên

Tạ Lan Hạnh

- Tun, can you bring me a tomato?

- Tomato, tomato... - Tun eagerly climbed onto the chair.

- Here is your tomato, Mom.

- Oh no, this is a green cucumber. A tomato should be red.

- Ah, here are red tomatoes!

- They are not, either. A tomato should be roundish.

- Ah, here it is. A roundish tomato! – Tun looked around and cheered.

- No, it's an onion. A tomato should be roundish and red at the same time. – Mom said.

- So how about these ones,
Mom?

- No, these are cherries.
They are roundish and red,
too, but a tomato is much bigger.

Tun looked around all the vegetables on the kitchen table and found right away a big, red and roundish fruit.

- Ah, I found it. A big, red and roundish tomato. -
You made it this time. Well done, Tun. – Mom smilingly rubbed Tun's hair gently and praised him.
