

Momo and the Crab

Momon

Momo is looking for Lina, her cat. It is time to feed her. There she is! What is she doing?

"What is inside the hole,
Lina?" Momo asks.

Wow, a decapod lives in there, yet it is smaller than a crab.

“Is this what Dad usually calls yuyu?” Momo asks in her head. If I raise the yuyu, will it grow as big as a crab? Momo wants to know.

Let's see if the yuyu likes this.

Wow, yuyu eats just everything.

Yuyu also likes bread and banana.

One day, as she feeds the yuyu, she is surprised to see many small yuyus coming out. "Oh, it turns out that you were expecting all along? You must need a bigger space!"

"Just move here!"

Momo is very busy. The more the yuyus, the more she needs.

Until one day...

Oh ... oh ... where are you
all going?

Those yuyus dig holes!

"Oh, you prefer living in the holes!"

“What about you, Mrs. Yuyu? You must love living in the hole too.”

The Asia Foundation

Improving Lives, Expanding Opportunities

©2019, The Asia Foundation.

This book was created through a mother tongue book creation workshop conducted in collaboration between Litara Foundation and The Asia Foundation.

The workshop and professional development, along with the editing and design of this book, was conducted by Litara Foundation.

Brought to you by

The Asia Foundation

Let's Read! is an initiative of The Asia Foundation's Books for Asia program that fosters young readers in Asia. booksforasia.org

To read more books like this and get further information about this book, visit letsreadasia.org

Original Story

Momo Lan Yuyu, author: Momon . Released under CC BY-NC 4.0.

This work is a modified version of the original story. © The Asia Foundation, 2020. Some rights reserved. Released under CC BY-NC 4.0.

For full terms of use and attribution, <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>