

A BATH FOR PLUSH CAMEL

Bích Khoa

Bích Khoa

Nana had a plush camel that she loved a lot. Nini had a plush giraffe as her close friend. Sometimes, Nini also wanted to play with Camel.

Nana made the living room carpet into a desert, and rode her Camel merrily around the desert.

Seeing that, Nini suggested:
- Why don't we check if Camel can swim like a whale?

But there's no way Camel could swim like a whale.

Camel got soaking wet.

Mom came and said: - That's enough, sweeties! It's getting soaked.

- Ha ha, my Giraffe is still bone-dry. – Nini laughed contentedly. - Not anymore! – Nana yelled.

As a result, Mom took both Camel and Giraffe away. Nana and Nini got all sulky.

- Get back to your room, girls! I'll return your plushies when you two make peace with each other.

Nana and Nini went to bed upset and did not exchange a single word.

Nana was so sad and missed her Camel a lot. She reached out to Nini. - Nini, I'm sorry! - I'm sorry, too, Nana.

Camel and Giraffe got all dried now. Mom gently put them into the arms of two soundly sleeping little daughters.

Brought to you by

The Asia Foundation

Let's Read! is an initiative of The Asia Foundation's Books for Asia program that fosters young readers in Asia. booksforasia.org

To read more books like this and get further information about this book, visit letsreadasia.org

Original Story

Lạc đà bông đi tắm, author: Bích Khoa . illustrator: by Bích Khoa. Released under CC BY-NC 4.0.

This work is a modified version of the original story. © The Asia Foundation, 2019. Some rights reserved. Released under CC BY-NC 4.0.

For full terms of use and attribution, <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>

Contributing translators: