In Green Forest, everyone was living peaceful in harmony with each other.

Suddenly, one day, Tiger King from Old Forest sent his underlings to Green Forest to roar and scream haughtily and threateningly.

Seeing Brown Rabbit around, they shouted. - Where is your Chief? Tell him to present himself right now! Tiger King has an edict for you guys. - Our Chief is away right now! – Brown Rabbit replied.

The underlings gave Brown Rabbit a whisker of Tiger and said. - Give this to your Green Forest Chief, tell him to offer a juicy fat critter everyday as tribute to our King, or all of this green forest will be devastated thoroughly.

'If we obey the edict, all the Green Forest's folks will become Tiger's meals in no time!' – Brown Rabbit anxiously ran to find Porcupine.

After listening to Brown Rabbit, Porcupine said.
- Tiger is trying to brag about his strength with his whisker. We have to figure out how to deal with this right away, or all of us will be in danger.

Rabbit thought for a while and then he asked Porcupine. - Can you give me one of your quills? Rabbit gave the quill to the underlings of Tiger and said.

- This is a hair of our Green Forest Chief. With this hair, he challenges your King to a duel. If your King loses, all the tiger clan will be eaten alive in a single day.

After staring at the quill for quite a while, finally Tiger said. - The Green Forest Chief must be really huge and brutal to have this big, tough and sharp hair. We'd better keep away from that forest from now on.

Thanks to smart and brave Brown Rabbit, since then, no more beasts dared to lurk around Green Forest, and the animals there enjoyed the peace ever after.
