Level 3

Tell me, are all girls the same?
Should all girls be the same?
It would be boring if they were.

Some girls look like this.

Some look like that.

Some wear frocks.

Others prance
around in shorts.

Some love long skirts.

And some just slip into their father's kurta.

Some girls
have short hair.

Some have long hair.

And some have no
hair at all.

Some like to climb trees.

Some are happy making dolls and taking care of them.

Some girls like to ride anything that moves. A cycle, a horse, even a donkey.

Some like to sing loudly and some are just happy to hum.

Some girls love flying kites and some just love playing gilly danda.

Some girls like to be home and sit on their father's lap.

Some like to be outdoors and to run and play.

Some love dressing up.

But there are others who do not enjoy dressing up, nor do they have the time for it.
They are happy in their shabby clothes and flying hair.

Girls can be calm.
They can also be naughty.

Sometimes they can get very angry and

SCREAM

Girls are a mix of happy, angry, naughty, fun or quiet.

All children should be what they want to be
Because they are all individuals

Rainbow Girls

(English)

Are all girls alike? Do they like the same things, should they all dress similarly? Let's think about it.

This is a Level 3 book for children who are ready to read on their own.

Pratham Books goes digital to weave a whole new chapter in the realm of multilingual children's stories. Knitting together children, authors, illustrators and publishers. Folding in teachers, and translators. To create a rich fabric of openly licensed multilingual stories for the children of India and the world. Our unique online platform, StoryWeaver, is a playground where children, parents, teachers and librarians can get creative. Come, start weaving today, and help us get a book in every child's hand!
