

Going Home

Author: Rukmini Banerji

Illustrators: Ketan Raut, Santosh Pujari

School is over.
Children are leaving.
Teachers are leaving.
Everyone is going home.

I come out of the gate.
I am in a hurry.
I do not have time to play.
I do not have time to talk.
I want to get home fast.

I walk down the lane.
It is a narrow lane.
I can see crowds up ahead.
There is a big road there.

The big road has lots of traffic.
Cars, trucks and cycles, motorcycles, scooters and auto rickshaws.
Some are going this way. Some are going that way.
I know how to find the gap and run to the other side.

I have reached the divider.
There is traffic in front.
There is traffic behind.
I must be careful.

I am on the other side.
I almost crash into the chanawallah.
He growls. I say, "Sorry," and run along.

I walk past the shops.
People are buying all kinds of things.
There is a toyshop. I cannot stop.

I walk faster and faster.
Now there are fish shops. Big fish, small fish, long fish, flat fish.
Shiny fish, dull fish, So many fish in every shop.

Now I must run.
Past the video shops, past the barber shop,
past the cloth shop, past the pan shop.
Running, running, running down the lane.

Finally I reach home.
Oh good! I am not late.
My father goes to work in the afternoon.
He has not left as yet. His cycle is still here.

My father comes outside, my mother is behind him.
I give my father a big hug. My father gives me a big hug.
Then he goes to work. Now there is no hurry. I have lots of time.
