

Chhuk-Chhuk-Chhak

Author: Vinita Krishna

Illustrator: Suvidha Mistry

Translator: Ritu Singh

Level 1

Nanhi picked up her slate and chalk.
She wanted to draw a long, l-o-n-g train.

Nanhi first drew an engine which gave out a lot of smoke, for the long, long train.

“Oh dear! Now where shall I make the coaches?” Nanhi wondered, for there was no more space on the slate.

Nanhi put the slate and chalk down on the floor and thought.

She drew a coach on the floor.

Then a second coach, then another, and another, and another... Nanhi just kept drawing.

Until her chalk got over.
Nanhi got up and took a look. Wow!
Her train was as long as the verandah!

And off went Nanhi's train – Chhuk-Chhuk-Chhak, from here to there, so very far!
