

My Aaji Has a Tail

Author: Gauri Dalvi

Illustrator: Shreya Sen

Have you met my Aaji?
Everyone says that my Aaji has a tail.

Aaji's tail follows her all day long,
Mumma says it even does a pirouette, when Aaji sings my favourite song.

I wonder why I haven't seen the tail yet?

Papa says the tail is growing long and strong. The tail even answers Aaji's phone, when she gets a call.

What! Why haven't I seen the tail yet?

My teacher says the tail helps Aaji a lot. The tail even helps water the plants in the pots.

Sigh! Why haven't I seen the tail yet?

The bus driver says the tail sits next to Aaji in the bus. The tail imitates everything that she does.

Someone please tell me, why haven't I seen the tail yet?

One day I asked Aaji, "Everybody says that you have a tail.
But why haven't I seen the tail yet?"

Aaji laughed out loud.
She pulled out her phone.

Look! It's me.

And that's me, it's me again.

It's me everywhere!

Now I know why everyone says that my Aaji has a tail.
Because it was always me following Aaji on her small and big trails.
