“Oh no, the unniappams have disappeared!” said Ammachi.
“Someone must have stolen them!” said Sooraj.
“But who?” asked Ammachi.
“It could have been Penny,” said Sooraj. “Or maybe it was that civet from the attic.”

“Hmm,” said Ammachi. “Perhaps.”

“Or do you think Appachen took them?” asked Sooraj.
“There’s only one way to find out,” said Ammachi.

“Oh? How?”

“We must lay three BRILLIANT traps!”
“First we need more unniappams.”

“Aren’t they all gone?” asked Sooraj.

“No, I hid some in the kitchen,” said Ammachi. “For emergencies!”

“Haha! Yum!”
“Our first trap is for the civet,” said Ammachi.
“When he comes through the window, he’ll fall right into this basket. His weight will make the lid fall shut automatically.”

“Amazing!” said Sooraj.
“This one is for Penny. If she tries to eat the unniappam, she’ll be instantly trapped under this bucket.”

“Brilliant!” said Sooraj.
“And this hidden camera will catch Appachen red-handed,” said Ammachi. “If he lifts the unniappam off the plate, this string will slip out and trigger the camera’s shutter.”

“Genius!” said Sooraj.
“And now we wait.”
An hour passed. Ammachi was in her rocking chair, reading her favourite science book, when Sooraj came running.
   “Ammachi, come and look! The traps have been sprung!”
   “Oh!” said Ammachi. “Let’s see!”
“The basket trap is empty!”

“The camera didn’t go off either!”

“The bucket trap! How odd!”

“But the unniappams are all gone!” said Ammachi. “Again!”
“What a clever thief,” said Ammachi. “Maybe we should lay THREE MORE traps!”

“YES!” said Sooraj.

“But what will we use as bait?”

“Don’t we have three more unniappams left in the oven?” asked Sooraj.
“A-HA!” said Ammachi. “Not so clever after all, I see!”

“Eh?” said Sooraj.
“What?”
“How did you know that there were THREE unniappams left, Sooraj?” asked Ammach. “And HOW did you know they were hidden in the OVEN?”

“Ahhh.... I.... Ummm.... Ohhh....”

“And I didn’t tell ANYONE ELSE how the traps worked. Only YOU could have sprung them without getting caught!”
“Okay. OKAY!” said Sooraj. “FINE! You caught me. I AM the unniappam thief!”

“I KNEW IT!” said Ammachi.
“Heee. Those unniappams were TOO irresistible, Ammachi!” said Sooraj.
“You’re such a good cook!”

“Hahaha! You little flatterer!” said Ammachi.
“Who gets to eat the remaining unniappams, Ammachi?”

“Hahaha! Come, we’ll share them!”
“Oh no!” said Ammachi.
“The unniappams are GONE!
AGAINNNN!”
"Hehehe!"
