Hooray! Summer is here!
Children don’t have to go to school in the summer.
They can sleep as late as they want!
It's the first morning of the summer vacation and Unnie wants to play.
“Innie, do you want to come to my house to play?” asks Unnie.

“I am busy reading a book, Unnie,” says Innie.
That afternoon Unnie is still playing.
“Hey Innie, come and play with me!” calls Unnie.

“I told you, Unnie! I am busy reading a book!” says Innie.
The sun is about to set and Unnie is getting tired of playing alone.

“Come to my house, Innie! I have so many toys!” he says.
"I AM BUSY READING A BOOK, UNNIE!"
Unnie is frustrated. “What’s so interesting about that book?”
“I must find out!”
Unnie goes to the tree where Innie is reading.

“I’m rescuing the princess,” Innies tells him.
“Really? Where?” says Unnie excitedly.
“Show me!”
Now, Unnie and Innie are battling the monsters together.
Finally, they rescue the princess!
For the rest of the summer, Unnie usually comes to Innie’s house...
...and they both read books together.
Unnie and Innie
(English)

When summer comes, Unnie spends all of his time playing with his toys. After a while, he gets bored with his toys and wants something new to do. He notices that his neighbour, Innie, is never bored. Where do you think Innie finds these adventures?

This is a Level 2 book for children who recognize familiar words and can read new words with help.
