Toot-Toot was very happy. She was going to the pond for the first time. Bath time!
At first, Toot-Toot was scared of the water.

But when she saw all the other goats splashing around, she jumped in!
Everyone laughed. Everyone splashed. Everyone played and played!
Toot-Toot soon found bubbles all around her.

They were going blop blop blop! She was a little afraid.
But she soon got over it.

Toot-Toot began to jump, dance and twirl through the bubbles.
After that fun day, Toot-Toot began to wonder, “How are bubbles made?”

She asked her Baba. Baba said he didn't know.
Toot-Toot asked her Ma.

Ma said she didn't know, either.
So Toot-Toot decided to solve the bubble mystery all by herself.
She flapped her tail in the water...

She blew into the water with all her might...

But she didn't make a bubble!
One day, Toot-Toot's tummy was hurting. She wondered what to do.
She decided to bathe in the pond's cool water.
There was a deep rumbling in her tummy.
Suddenly, gas escaped from Toot-Toot! Pssshhhhhhtttt!
As the gas shot through the water, bubbles popped up to the water’s surface. Blop blop blop!
Finally, Toot-Toot had solved the bubble mystery!
Now, whenever it's bath day, Toot-Toot makes the most magnificent bubbles of all.
After her first bath day, Toot-Toot's sister asked her how bubbles were made.

And what did Toot-Toot say? Why, she told her sister she didn't know!
