A Dress for Porcupine

Author: Chammi Iresha
Illustrator: Chathurika Jayasooriya
Translator: Alisha Berger
The New Year is just around the corner. Gethum, the spider has a lot of work to do.
“How do I make a dress for Kooru?” Gethum wonders.
The first dress Gethum made was too thin.
The second dress was too tight. Kooru couldn’t even walk in it.
Maybe I should just stay home on the new year, thought Kooru.
I will somehow make a dress for Kooru, thought Gethum.
But the next dress didn't suit her either. It only covered her front!
“No dress suits me because of my spikes,” Kooru cried to Gethum.
Now it was the New Year's eve. Gethum worked all night. She didn't sleep at all.
She wove a beautiful design around Kooru’s spikes.
Everyone wore beautiful clothes on New Year's day!
There were many competitions and lots of gifts and awards.
Of course, Kooru won for Best Dress.
But, the most prestigious prize was for the year's Hardest Worker.
And you know who won that prize!
A Dress for Porcupine
(English)

Kooru the porcupine asks her friend Gethum the spider to make a beautiful new year's dress for her. Gethum tries, but how can she dress an animal with such sharp spikes?

This is a Level 2 book for children who recognize familiar words and can read new words with help.

Pratham Books goes digital to weave a whole new chapter in the realm of multilingual children's stories. Knitting together children, authors, illustrators and publishers. Folding in teachers, and translators. To create a rich fabric of openly licensed multilingual stories for the children of India and the world. Our unique online platform, StoryWeaver, is a playground where children, parents, teachers and librarians can get creative. Come, start weaving today, and help us get a book in every child’s hand!